Populonia is an unforgettable experience, the ideal destination for a cultural holiday immersed in nature and history. Extended between the slopes of the promontory of Piombino and the Gulf of Baratti, the Archaeological Park of Baratti and Populonia includes the area where stood the Etruscan and Roman city of Populonia, known since ancient times for the intense metallurgical activity linked to the production of iron.

The path to reach the park, through the pine forest of the park of Rimigliano, a stretch of cliff overlooking the sea, a beautiful lawn and the beautiful gulf of Baratti. The entrance to the park is characterized by the presence of an Etruscan boat, faithfully rebuilt. The necropolis of Populonia is characterized by being the only one built by the Etruscans on the sea.
